

1983

Begun trading modems and line drivers under the name Data Network Design (DND)

1987

Ensign Communications is incorporated

1988

Nationwide supply and installation of multiplexers for BBC radio

1992

Network Cabling specialisation is added to the portfolio

1996

Ensign Communications is a leader in the cabling industry and is an early adopter of optical fibre

1997

Rapid growth forces not one but two office moves

1999

Site survey and network installation operations set the tone for the future

2000

Handheld 'giants' Symbol acquire Telxon and move ops to America - Ensign Communications fill the void

2001

Ensign Wireless Networks Ltd began business as a separate entity to the main cabling operation. Big accounts are added such as Ford, John Lewis and Tesco

2002

After networking giant Cisco Systems purchased the Aeronet IP, Ensign employed to train their engineers

2004

After rapid growth, Ensign Wireless Networks is incorporated forming one Ensign Communications Ltd

2005

Aruba Networks partnership is formed

2012

Cybersecurity specialisation as Palo Alto Networks partnership is formed

2014

Ruckus Wireless partnership is formed

2017

Ensign re-branded with updated company colours, re-imagined logo and imagery

2018

Cyber-security focused - Darktrace partnership is formed