

You lose 1 day productivity per employee every month because of poor network connectivity

If it's important your employees are fully productive then you need an enterprise grade Smart Worker solution

Negative Business Impact of Poor Networks... That is Simply Not Sustainable

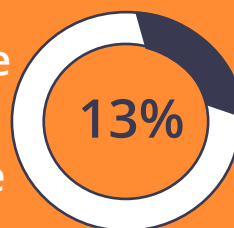

I wonder what the cost is to UK Businesses of lost productivity due to poor IT set up?

£3.4 billion

Home Workers are more productive when their network access is stable

Poor network responsible for 1 in 10 employees leaving

What are the top 2 employee concerns which impacts their daily productivity?

1. Slow running equipment
2. Can't get onto the network

